

Official Bio

Bobby Clark

Bobby Clark is an Indiana-based singer, songwriter, and guitarist whose music blends heartland rock, rockabilly, Americana, blues, and classic rock into something unmistakably his own. Raised near Evansville, Indiana, Clark's songwriting is rooted in Midwestern life — small towns, blue-collar experiences, and the kind of honest storytelling that doesn't flinch.

Clark's most celebrated accomplishment as a songwriter came when John Mellencamp recorded his song "Grandview" for the 2017 album Sad Clowns & Hillbillies, featuring Martina McBride. The placement brought national attention to Clark's voice as a writer and cemented his standing in the Americana and heartland rock community.

On stage, Bobby Clark is a force — equally at home as an acoustic solo performer or fronting a full band. His live show draws from decades of road experience across Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, and beyond, delivering the same fire and soul whether the room holds fifty people or five thousand.

Career Highlights

- Written more than 200 original songs
- Released the album Circle (2019)
- Shared stages or worked with John Mellencamp, Moe Z, Larry Crane, Tommy Stillwell, Mike Wanchic, Toby Myers, Mitch Ryder, and Joanna Dean
- Built a reputation as a high-energy live performer throughout Indiana and the Midwest

Live Performances Typically Include

- Original heartland rock songs
- Rockabilly
- Classic rock
- Blues
- Americana favorites
- Reimagined classics alongside his own material

At a Glance

Formats

Acoustic Solo · Duo · Trio · Full Band

Set Length

45 min / 60 min / 90 min / 2 × 45 min

Genre

Classic Rock · Rockabilly · Blues · Americana

Territory

Nationwide (US) · International on request

Booking

\(419\) 605-7052605-7052)

What They're Saying

Press Quotes

"The live shows are where Bobby's musical wit and talent come alive. Audiences that see Bobby Clark for the first time come away with a relationship that lasts, and the experience of hearing songs that bring out all sides of the adventure we call life."

Celestine Indiana

2021

"Bobby Clark is doing what he does best: making great music. Hailing from the outskirts of Evansville, Indiana, he grew up in the belly of the heartland rock world and the songs live up to the lineage."

visitsi.com

"This swamp-rocker (Grandview) was originally written in the early 1990s by John Mellencamp's cousin, Bobby Clark, who plays in a band in Indiana."

Songfacts.com

